Tax Residency & Planning Report for Simon

Date: 26 May 2024
Prepared by: Hoxton Tax Limited

Executive Summary

Simon, a current UK tax resident, intends to relocate to Saudi Arabia (KSA) with the specific financial goal of withdrawing his entire £1.2m UK Self-Invested Personal Pension (SIPP) free of UK income tax.

Our analysis confirms that this strategy is legally viable under the UK-Saudi Arabia Double Taxation Convention, specifically Article 18.

UK Statutory Residence Test (SRT) Analysis

Day Count Scenario Table

Number of Ties	Maximum Days in UK	Status
0 Ties	Up to 182 days	Non-Resident
1 Tie	Up to 120 days	Non-Resident
2 Ties	Up to 90 days	Likely Scenario
3 Ties	Up to 45 days	Scenario if Wife stays

Recommendations

1. Apply for NT Tax Code
2. Strict Day Counting
3. Five-Year Horizon

Disclaimer

"This report has been compiled based on UK tax legislation and guidance in force at the time of writing. Any tax laws, rates and allowances quoted are subject to change."